

Contents

Introduction	5
1. Overview of Government Reward Programs	9
Section One: The Federal Reward Program
2. Case Study: The DOJ Reward Program	21
3. Overview: Obtaining a DOJ Reward	31
4. A Quick Peek at Real Sample Cases	35
5. Origin of the DOJ Reward Program	39
6. The “ Four F Factors ” of Eligibility	43
7. Hottest Areas of Fraud	53
8. Fertile Fields of Fraud	69
9. Who Can Apply? Insiders and Entrepreneurs	79
10. Pre-Application Necessities	87
11. Filing the Application	93
12. DOJ’s Investigation and Decision	99
13. DOJ Accepts Your Case, Now What?	109
14. Ranges of Rewards	117
15. How DOJ Calculates Reward Amounts	121
16. Why DOJ Rejects Cases	127
17. What are Your Options if DOJ Declines?	135
18. Attorney Fees and Tax Issues	141
19. Personal Risks for Reporting Fraud	145
20. A Checklist to Follow	151
21. Piecing It All Together	159
22. Case Study Revisited	167
Section Two: The State Reward Programs
23. Rewards for Reporting State Fraud	175

Section Three: The New Tax Evasion Reward Program

24. A Case Study: Tax Fraud Mixed with State Fraud	183
25. Requirements for IRS Rewards	187
26. Sample Tax Fraud	193
27. Applying the “ Four F Factors ”	197
28. Risks and Rewards	203
29. The Application Process	209
30. To Use or Not to Use an Attorney	217
31. Revisiting the Case Study	221
Conclusion.	227
Appendix: Conducting Your Own Research	229
Glossary.	235
About the Author.	245
Index	249
Additional Resources – How to Report Other Fraud	255